Alpine Trekking Guide Training

Fjallgönguleiðsögn 1

All alpine trekking guide participants should fulfil specific prerequisites. Specific prerequisites are, but not limited to have taken a minimum of 15 mountaineering tours on your own*, with a minimum of 8 mountaineering trips on glaciated terrain. Mountain tours need to have taken place in variable mountain terrain.

- * A mountain tour on your own means that you are not on a guided tour, working as a guide or with support from a mountain professional.
- ** Variable mountain terrain can be different routes on the same mountain and/or different season.

Instructors and/or Technical committee can reject application if route list is repetitive or if mountain experience is substandard.
